

What does CIRCLE K mean to you?

Service?

Leadership?

Fellowship?

Because the truth is, the world is at your fingertips. Want to make a difference? You have to “be the change in the world you wish to see”...

And you have the power to make that difference through Circle K.

Time to show the world what it means to be a Circle K'er; a part of the Kiwanis family...

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Hey everyone! I hope you are all having a good summer. Kiwanis Family is starting work on a manual that will be available for your use and helping increase K-Fam hours! Don't forget when you are planning events to remember the rest of your Kiwanis family!

Hey Carolinas District. The Laws and Regulations Committee is excited to be working on a new goal for this administrative year: collecting the bylaws for each club in the district. Clubs who turn in bylaws by Sept. 9 will be entitled to an awesome reward at DLSSP. So start searching or drafting this summer!

I have been thinking lots about Fall District Large Scale Service Project (DLSSP) and figuring out what service we will be doing. DLSSP is my favorite service project and a great way to get new members (and anyone else!) excited about Circle K. It's an opportunity to get away from campus for a weekend for free, and you can quickly bond with new friends when you spend an entire weekend together. I hope to see you all at Fall DLSSP, Sept. 16-18 in Lake Waccamaw!

Well... what are you waiting for!?

START PLANNING!

RECRUITMENT / MEMBERSHIP

Why wait until fall semester begins to start recruiting? Get out there now! Find a group of members that will be on campus for the summer and create recruiting campaigns for the Orientation Students during these next few months.

Make sure you hold social events for your club too! Hold a bonfire, cook-out, ice cream social, or maybe even a trip to the lake or beach! Even if you're members aren't on campus, doesn't mean you can't hold a gathering together!

SERVICE / FUNDRAISING

You may be reduced in numbers this summer, but that doesn't mean you have lost your ability to serve! Your community never stops needing help, especially not during the summer. Volunteer with Habitat and help build a house, adopt-a-highway, help at your local soup kitchen, or go visit the children at your local hospital!

Even better? Turn service projects into fundraising events so that your club can start off the fall semester with a little money in your pocket. Hold car washes, bake sales, walk-a-thons, or hold a movie in the park and charge for popcorn!

If you missed the Subregion G Summer Service Social Event,

“I had lots of fun at the Summer Service Social hosted by the Georgia District, and I am so glad I went! It was really cool to meet lots of new people from beyond the Carolinas District. Traveling to Georgia with Niaisha and Shirlyn was an adventure, and I enjoyed both the service and social aspects of the event.”

YOU MISSED OUT!

Love the beach? Love CKI?

THIS IS
PLACE
TO BE!

Meet Circle Kers from all across the world who share a passion for service, just like you,! Attend fun workshops, a talent show, the service fair, caucusing for next year's international board and much more at the Virginia Beach Hotel and Resort Conference Center ON THE BEACH!

AND IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO REGISTER!

There is always late and on-site registration!

(drum roll, please...)

Jonathan,

From Lenoir-Rhyne University:

Jonathan, a sophomore from North Carolina. He has been involved with all the activities we have done including the surprise. He also helped the president prepare for it even though it took 3 hours late at night and didn't have to. He went out of his way to help with it and plans his schedule around Circle K things. He really has taken on the responsibilities of a circle k member at an officer level.

Aiken Kiwanis Club Tricycle Races,

From USC-Aiken:

Aiken Kiwanis Club Tricycle Races. This is the Aiken Kiwanis Club's main fundraiser to help support Circle K, Key Clubs, Builders Club and Terrific Kids. All of the K-Family Clubs come together to make it successful. Children are sponsored by local businesses and ride in races on tricycles by age. Every child is recognized with a trophy or ribbon. In addition to helping with the races, our Circle K Club runs a concession stand for the event.

Words to Live By...

There are places in the world where people do not dream... of rocket-powered unicorns and candy cane machines, of magic watermelon boats, and musical baboons, teeny tiny trumpet players, training pet raccoons, yes there are places in the world where people dream up dreams so simply un-fantastical and practical they seem to lose all possibility of thinking super things of dancing wild animals with diamond-coated wings, instead they dream of furniture, of buying a new hat, of owning matching silverware, could you imagine that? Instead they lay awake at night wishing for a car, not one that runs on jellybeans... but one that's reg-u-lar. They dream of breakfast sandwiches, they dream of telephones, sometimes they even dream of dreams that aren't even their own. Yes there are places in the world where dreams are almost dead. So please my child do keep in mind before you go to bed, to dream a dream as big as big could ever dream to be, then dream a dream ten times as big as that one dream you can see.

Then once you've got that dream in mind, please dream a million more! And not a million quiet dreams, a million dreams that ROAR! A million dreams so loud they scream, so loud they sing and shout! So super huge they say "Hey World! Guess what I'm dreamin' bout!?" "I'm dreaming about everything that no one thought to wonder—dreams so bight that they've got dreams and they've got dreams up under!" Please dream for those who've given up, for those who've never tried. Please use your dreams to make new dreams for all the dreams that died.

Cause you're the one whose dreams can be whatever dreams you want. Whose dreams can change the way things are, and the way that things are not.

And if they say that all your dreams are too big to come true, you tell them that I told you... "That's what dreams are meant to do!" They're meant to make you seem as if you don't know up from down. Because dreams are dreams and that's why dreams are worth having around! So when you think your dreaming's done, just remember what I said, "Close your eyes my child and dream that perfect dream inside your head".

Letter from the Editor

Hey Carolina Circle K'ers! I hope you all are having an absolutely amazing summer. I know we are all busy with internships, jobs, summer school, vacation, and just enjoying these lovely lazy days of summer, but don't forget- just because it's hot and sweaty summertime, doesn't mean service should stop! In fact, this may be a better time than ever to help out in your community when you have free time (maybe even collaborate with a local Key Club or Kiwanis group!?) Oh, and don't forget to sweet talk those newly graduated college-bound kids into joining Circle K next year ;)

Keep in mind I am still new to the bulletin and have plenty of time and room for improvement; I always love constructive criticism and fresh ideas! Email, call, or facebook me!
